FOR RELEASE at will

MONSIEUR HULOT'S HOLIDAY, a comedy directed by and starring Jaques Tati, will be shown at The Cleveland Museum of Art on Friday May 9 at 8:00 p.m. At the Cannes Film Festival it was awarded the Grand Prize by the International Critics.

The comedy depends largely upon pantomime - thus there is very little dialogue in the film. The story is set in a French seaside resort. There a series of comic episodes occur which are almost entirely visual in their humor. Jacques Tati has been compared by many critics to Charlie Chaplin at his best.

The film is open free to the public.
